

Version Information Form

---

About form

---

This chapter describes how to use the Version Information Form. It is a form that shows the version of this application and information on the author.

Operation manual

---

The figure below is an overview of the Version Information Form. The operation procedure is briefly described.

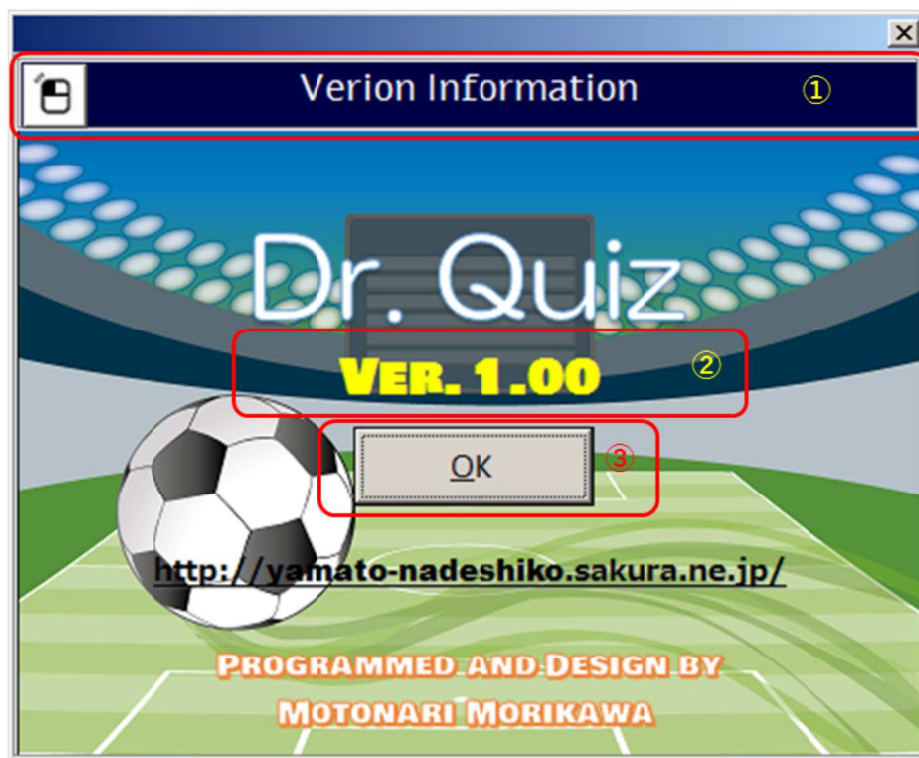

Fig. Version Information Form

- ① Title bar : This area is mainly an area for displaying the title of this form. Click the icon button to display how to use (this manual).
- ② Version display area : This area displays the version of this application.
- ③ OK button : If you can confirm the version information of this application, you press this button.

Accelerator

---

By pressing the [Alt] + [O] keys, the same process as pressing the [OK] button is executed.